

CITY OF SAN MATEO DRAFT ORDINANCE

Amending Several Chapters of Title 27, Zoning, of the San Mateo Municipal Code to Implement the 2023-2031 San Mateo Housing Element (Sixth Housing Cycle)

WHEREAS, the State Housing Element Law (Government Code Section 65580 et seq.) requires that the City Council adopt a Housing Element for the 2023-2031 period to accommodate the City of San Mateo ("City") regional housing need allocation (RHNA) of 7,015 housing units; and

WHEREAS, on May 20, 2024, the City Council adopted a resolution to adopt the revised Housing Element of the General Plan for the period of 2023-2031 (Housing Element); and

WHEREAS, under Housing Element Goal 1 – Production and the Policies H1.7, H1.13, H1.14, H1.15, and H1.16, the City commits to reviewing and amending the City's Zoning Code to increase affordable housing production, update standards to support housing production, and address special needs groups and supportive housing requirements; and

WHEREAS, under Housing Element Goal 3 – Protection, the City commits to facilitating and supporting protection of current residents to prevent displacement. Policy H3.7 requires the City to evaluate opportunities for expanding homeless shelters; and

WHEREAS, the Environmental Impact Report (EIR) for the San Mateo General Plan 2040 analyzed new residential development of up to 19,764 new housing units and growth around the City through 2040; and

WHEREAS, on March 18, 2024, at a duly noticed public hearing, the City Council certified the EIR for the San Mateo General Plan 2040, pursuant to the California Environmental Quality Act of 1970, together with related State implementation guidelines promulgated thereunder (CEQA); and

WHEREAS, on _____, the Planning Commission held a duly noticed public hearing, received all written and oral public comments, and recommended that the City Council approve the proposed ordinance to amend several Chapters of Title 27, Zoning, of the San Mateo Municipal Code to Implement the 2023-2031 San Mateo Housing Element (Sixth Housing Cycle) and Measure T, General Plan Ballot Measure (November 2024 Election).

NOW, THEREFORE, THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF SAN MATEO ORDAINS AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1. Legislative Findings. At a duly noticed public hearing on _____, 2025, the City Council of the City of San Mateo reviewed and considered the accompanying staff report and attachments thereto, the exemption from environmental review, together with comments received during the public review process, and hereby finds and determines that the proposed ordinance is consistent with the adopted General Plan in that it supports the development of housing and achieves the General Plan's stated goals and policies.

SECTION 2. Section 27.04.130 of the San Mateo Municipal Code is amended as follows:

27.04.130     COMMUNITY CARE FACILITY.

A "community care facility" means any place or building which is maintained and operated to provide 24-hour non-medical residential care, or day care services for children, adults, or both, limited to the following:

(a) Residential Care Facility. A residential care facility means a family home, group home, residential care facility for the elderly, foster home, intermediate care facility or similar facility, for 24-hour non-medical care of persons in need of personal services, supervision, or assistance essential for sustaining the activities of daily living or for the protection of the individual;

(b) Day Care Center. A day care facility means any facility which provides non-medical care to persons (adults and/or children) in need of personal services, supervision, or assistance essential for sustaining the activities of daily living or for the protection of the individual on less than a 24-hour basis;

(c) Family Day Care Home. A family day care home means a facility which provides care, protection, and supervision of no more than 14 children in the caregiver's own home, for periods of less than 24 hours per day, while the parents or guardians are away.

SECTION 3. Section 27.04.165 of the San Mateo Municipal Code is amended as follows:

27.04.165 DWELLING.

"Dwelling" means a building or portion thereof, designed or used exclusively for residential occupancy, including a one-family dwelling unit, an accessory dwelling unit, a junior accessory dwelling unit, a two-family dwelling unit, a multiple-family dwelling unit, or a single room occupancy but does not include a hotel, motel, boarding or lodging houses or other lodging facilities, or a vessel or boat, or a house trailer.

(a) "Accessory dwelling unit" means an attached or detached residential dwelling unit which provides complete independent living facilities for one or more persons, is accessory to the primary residential dwelling unit or units, and includes permanent provisions for living, sleeping, eating, cooking facilities and sanitation on the same parcel as the primary residential dwelling unit.

(b) "Studio unit" means a dwelling unit consisting of one principal room used for living and sleeping purposes, plus cooking facilities, and a bathroom.

(c) "Junior accessory dwelling unit" means an additional, independent living unit constructed within the walls of a proposed or legally existing single-family residence, including attached garages.

(d) "Multiple-family dwelling" means a building or portion thereof, designed or altered for occupancy by three or more families living independently of each other.

(e) "One-family dwelling" means a building containing one cooking facility only and designed exclusively for use and occupancy by one family, including the provision of interior access to all bedrooms, and may include a junior accessory dwelling unit within the principal dwelling.

(f) "Primary residential dwelling unit" means a building or separate portion thereof designated and/or customarily used as a residence by not more than one family and typically situated on a parcel or lot on which no other primary dwelling is located. Each dwelling unit within a multiple-family or two-family dwelling is also considered a primary residential dwelling unit (does not apply to junior accessories dwelling units or attached accessory dwelling units). The primary residential dwelling unit shall be larger, in terms of floor area, than any other residential unit situated on the same parcel or lot.

(g) "Single Room Occupancy" (SRO) means housing composed of individual efficiency dwelling units, where each unit has a minimum floor area of 150 square feet and a maximum size of 500 square feet. To qualify as an SRO development, no more than 10% of the units in a development may contain individual kitchens and bathrooms. Any unit not developed with an individual kitchen or bathroom must have access to common areas containing kitchen and bathroom facilities. SROs must be leased for a minimum of 30 consecutive days and also include apartment hotels. SROs are not required to provide any residential care or supportive services.

(h) "Two-family dwelling" means a building(s) designed or altered to provide attached (duplex) or detached dwelling units for occupancy by two families living independently of each other.

SECTION 4. Section 27.04.170 of the San Mateo Municipal Code is amended as follows:

27.04.170 DWELLING UNIT

"Dwelling unit" means one or more rooms in a structure which are arranged or designed for use by one family, which includes provisions for living, sleeping, eating, cooking and sanitation, and if located on multiple levels/stories, the unit provides interior connections from a common living area (including but not limited to a living room, family room, dining room, kitchen, or other common living areas as determined by the Zoning Administrator).

SECTION 5. Section 27.04.177 of the San Mateo Municipal Code is amended as follows:

27.04.177 EMERGENCY SHELTER.

"Emergency shelter" means overnight emergency housing typically operated by a governmental or nonprofit agency. It serves as the principal shelter of the inhabitants for a temporary period and may include services like food, sanitation, laundry, health and child care, transportation, and social services. Emergency shelters includes other interim interventions, including, but not limited to, a navigation center, bridge housing, and respite or recuperative care.

Emergency shelters are subject to the following: (a) The shelter must maintain a documented management plan that outlines strategies for staff training, community outreach, security measures, resident intake, and, when relevant, programs like job training or counseling; (b) each emergency shelter is restricted to a maximum of one hundred (100) beds, serving no more than one hundred (100) people at one time; (c) individuals or families may reside at the shelter for up to 180 days consecutively, except when longer stays are part of ongoing training or rehabilitation efforts outlined in the management plan; (d) the shelter may provide one or more common facilities, such as central cooking and dining rooms, recreation rooms, counseling centers, childcare centers, or other support services, exclusively for residents; (e) the shelter must have designated staff on-premises during all operational hours; (f) no more than one (1) emergency shelter shall be allowed within a radius of three hundred (300) feet from another such facility, measured from the nearest property lines; (g) the interior on-site waiting and intake area must be at least two hundred (200) square feet; and (h) minimum on-site parking requirement of two off-street parking spaces plus one additional off-street parking space for each 10 beds and one additional parking space per each employee on site.

SECTION 7: Section 27.04.222 of the San Mateo Municipal Code is added to Chapter 27.04 as follows:

27.04.222      GROUP HOME

“Group home” means a one-family dwelling providing 24-hour residential care for a wide variety of persons with special needs, including but not limited to licensed group homes, unlicensed group homes, and recovery residences or sober living homes. Residents may share cooking, dining, and living areas, and may, in some group homes, participate in cooking, housekeeping, and other communal living activities.

SECTION 8. Section 27.04.250 of the San Mateo Municipal Code is repealed.

SECTION 9. Section 27.04.306 of the San Mateo Municipal Code is added to Chapter 27.04 as follows:

SECTION 42. Environmental Determination. In accordance with California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) Guidelines Section 15183, the zoning amendment to establish a by-right residential overlay district and reclassify parcels with the overlay district ("project") is exempt from further environmental review because the Project which generally allows for more housing types to be permitted uses in specific zoning districts and remove regulatory barriers from the zoning code is consistent with the anticipated land uses under the land use designations for the sites adopted as part of the General Plan 2040 for which an EIR was certified by the City Council on March 18, 2024. Also, there are no specific proposed changes to residential development densities and is consistent with the development density established by the General Plan. The Project is also consistent with the implementation policies of the adopted and certified Housing Element and pursuant to certain mandates in state law. There are no project specific effects that are peculiar to the project or the sites; there are no project specific impacts that the General Plan Update EIR failed to analyze as significant effects; there are no potentially significant off-site and cumulative impacts that the general plan EIR failed to evaluate; and there is no substantial new information which results in more severe impacts than anticipated by the general plan EIR

SECTION 43. Severability. In the event any section, clause or provision of this ordinance shall be determined invalid or unconstitutional, such section, clause or provision shall be deemed severable and all other sections or portions hereof shall remain in full force and effect.

SECTION 44. Publication. This ordinance shall be published in summary in a newspaper of general circulation, posted in the City Clerk's Office, and posted on the City's website, all in accord with Section 2.15 of the City Charter.
