Subject: Bay Meadows proposal

Hi Patrice,

Would you confirm that you received this email and please distribute it to the members of the Planning Commission?

Thank you and best regards,

Karyl Eldridge

Dear San Mateo Planning Commissioners:

On behalf of One San Mateo, I am writing to express our serious concerns about the changes proposed by Wilson Meany to its project at Bay Meadows. The new plan, which could accommodate as many as 1,800 workers while providing only 57 homes, is radically unresponsive to the current needs of this city. In a recent community survey, it was found that affordable housing was the chief concern of our residents, and yet the imbalance between jobs and housing in this new iteration of the Bay Meadows proposal only serves to aggravate affordability pressures in our city. The members of One San Mateo strongly encourage the Planning Commission to reject the proposal in its new form.

Sincerely,

Karyl Eldridge
Vice Chair of One San Mateo
